Attachment to 2004 LM-30 Report of L.E. Swenson

In the 1970's the Leadership of Local 381 felt that there was a need for a low income residence in the Santa Maria area. They approached the Federal Government and negotiated a financial arrangement. It was part Urban Renewal and part Housing and Urban Development (HUD). In 1975 a HUD loan was signed and the project began. Teamsters Union Local 381 became the overseer of the Union Plaza Apartment Complex through the Union Plaza Corporation board of directors. The apartment complex is self managed by the Union Plaza Corporation.

The Union Plaza Corporation Bylaw's require that the Board of Directors be members of the Local Union (three union members on the board). The Corporation Bylaw's allow the Principle Officer of the Union to be the Principal Officer of the Union Plaza Corporation. The Local Union is financially responsible for the 3 million dollar loan that financed the project in 1975. The Union Plaza Apartment complex pays the mortgage through a HUD loan, but if they should ever default, the Local Union becomes responsible. The Bylaws require that the money of the Local Union be separate from the money of the Union Plaza Corporation. Both of these organizations have separate operations and bank accounts from the Union Plaza Apartments. All of these organizations are a "not-for-profit" organization. The Union Plaza Corporation manages the Apartment Complex for the Local Union. The employees of the Apartment Complex are covered under a Collective Bargaining Agreement between the Local Union and the Union Plaza Corporation.
